

6516206351.txt

I do not understand the continual wasting of time by government to prohibit thing that people choose to purchase. I pay for XM radio and if they can do it better than convensional radio than that should be my choice. This is America and the people should have choices.